Further, the purpose of this Ordinance is to define the rights so granted by the Tribe to Tribal Members with respect to such leases, including, but not limited to, the right to pledge a security interest in the same pursuant to a Loan Program.

(2) Background and Intent

(d) It is the policy of the Tribe to ensure that all lands under the sovereign authority and jurisdiction of the Tribe be managed in such a way that preserves and protects the long term interests of the Tribe and its Tribal Members, and that the lease of lands to individual Tribal Members and the vesting in such Tribal Members of certain limited rights of pledge and transfer as hereafter provided will promote the interests of the Tribe and its Tribal Members.

(b) The Tribal Court shall have jurisdiction and authority to hear and adjudicate any enforcement action brought pursuant to this Section, provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to be a waiver of the Tribe's sovereign immunity.

(c) The Tribal Court shall specifically be authorized to award monetary damages and to impose such equitable orders as the Tribal Court may deem necessary for the enforcement of Tribal Law in harmony with the purposes and intent of this Ordinance.

(d) Prior to the commencement of an enforcement action, the Tribe must provide written notice to the Lessee of any violation and provide a period of not less than 30 and not more than 180 days to cure the violation or violations. If the violation is not cured within the time period stated in such written notice, then the Tribe may commence an enforcement action seeking such remedies as the Tribe may request. The election by Tribe to seek any one or more than one remedy in an enforcement action shall not preclude the Tribe from pursuing any other remedy allowed by Tribal Law including, but not limited to, the termination of a Private Homeownership Lease in accordance with this Chapter.

(e) A copy of any notice required under the prior subsection of this Section also shall be sent to any Loan Program Lender or permitted successor or assign as then holds of Record a security interest in the Lessee's Private Homeownership Lease.

(2) Termination of a Private Homeownership Lease by Lessee – The Lessee may terminate a lease for convenience at any time by providing 30 days' notice to the Tribe, provided that if Lessee has granted a Leasehold Mortgage or other Security Interest in the Lease to a Loan Program Lender, Lessee will be bound by the terms of the Leasehold Mortgage or other Security interest and may not terminate for convenience unless otherwise permitted to do so. However, where the lease has been terminated for convenience, the Lessee will not be reimbursed for any expenditures for improvements or any other work on the parcel.

(3) Termination of Private Homeownership Lease by the Tribe - In addition to the rights set forth in the prior two Subsections, and subject to the provisions of this Chapter, the Tribe shall have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the Private Homeownership Lease of any Lessee upon a determination by the Tribe of good cause shown as that term is defined in this Section. The following shall constitute good cause for the termination and divestiture of the Private Homeownership Lease Rights of a Lessee in and to a Leased Parcel:

(a) An attempt by a Lessee to convey, assign, pledge, mortgage or otherwise transfer Lessee's interest in a Private Homeownership Lease except as expressly provided for in this Ordinance;

- (b) The failure of any Lessee to use and occupy a Dwelling located on a Leased Parcel as such Lessee's principal residence for a cumulative period of six or more months in any calendar year, without prior written authorization of the Tribe;
- (c) The banishment and/or exclusion of a Lessee from the Tribe or from the Reservation under Tribal Law and custom;
- (d) The failure of Lessee to materially abide by Tribal Law as it relates to Leased Parcels, Dwellings, and the public health and safety of persons occupying Leased Parcels or Dwellings;
- (e) Serious or repeated violation of the terms of the Private Homeownership Lease; and
- (f) The failure of a Lessee to commence and/or complete construction of a Dwelling within the time periods or otherwise according to the standards provided in Section 420.500(3) of this Ordinance.

(4) Procedure for Termination - The Tribe shall exercise its rights to terminate Private Homeownership Lease Rights only in accordance with the following procedure:

(a) The Tribe shall give written notice to the Lessee, and a copy to any Leasehold Mortgagee, of the violations constituting good cause for termination of Private Homeownership Lease Rights and the Tribe's intent to seek termination of Private Homeownership Lease Rights, which notice shall contain at a minimum, the following:

- (i) The action(s) that must be taken by the Lessee to effect a cure in order to avoid the termination, provided a cure is practicable given the stated grounds for termination and the time allowed for such cure pursuant to subsection (b), below, or a statement that no cure period shall be afforded the Lessee if the Tribe determines a cure is not practicable given the stated grounds for termination;
- (ii) The specific good cause reason for the intended termination;
- (iii) The date on which the termination will be effective and a summary of the consequences of such termination;
- (iv) The name, phone number, and address of the person or persons in the Tribe that may be contacted for further information concerning the termination; and
- (v) A statement certifying that a copy of this notice has been sent by the Tribe to any Loan Program Lender who has a security interest in the Lease affected by notice of intent to seek termination.

(b) Provided the Tribe reasonably concludes a cure is practicable given the stated grounds for termination, the Tribe shall allow the Lessee a period of not less than

COQUILLE INDIAN TRIBE
Chapter 420
Private Homeownership Land Leasing Ordinance

30 days and not more than 180 days to cure or otherwise remedy the condition or conditions constituting the stated grounds for termination.

(c) If the cure period so noticed to the Lessee has expired, and the Lessee has not cured the violations supporting the good cause reason for termination, then the Tribe may terminate the Lessee's Private Homeownership Lease.

(d) The Tribal Council may by resolution terminate a Private Homeownership Lease provided such resolution also authorizes the expenditure of any monies reasonably determined by the Tribal Council to be payable to any Loan Program Lender with an interest in such Lease or to the successors of the Lessee subject to termination, if any, all as provided for in subsections (4) and (5) of this Section. If the Tribal Council fails to so terminate said Private Homeownership Lease within the time provided for in this subsection (4), whether by affirmative act or by failure to act for any reason, such Lease shall not be terminated.

(e) The Tribe shall determine, on a case-by-case basis, considering the specific circumstances leading to the termination, including the presence of any mitigating factors, whether the Tribe will pay any funds to a Lessee whose Private Homeownership Lease has been terminated for the reasons set out herein. Such determination shall be at the sole discretion of the Tribal Council and not subject to appeal or legal challenge. The amount of such payment shall be based on the fair market value of such improvements, using the same process for calculating fair market value that is set out in 420.200(6) of this Ordinance.

(5) Payment to Loan Program Lenders in Event of Termination – If the Tribe terminates a Private Homeownership Lease pursuant to the terms of this Chapter, the Tribe may, in its sole discretion, assume the terms of any financing obtained by Lessee that is secured by a Leasehold Mortgage on the property. In the event that the Tribe determines not to assume the terms of the financing, the Tribe will make payments to Loan Program Lenders with security interests in the property in the following circumstances and only under the terms and conditions set out herein:

(a) The Tribe shall pay to any Loan Program Lender, or permitted successor or assign of a Loan Program Lender, all then unpaid sums secured by a Leasehold Mortgage of Record encumbering such Leased Parcel. For purposes of this Chapter, such holder of a Leasehold Mortgage shall not be entitled to collect from the Tribe any extraordinary sum, fee, or penalty otherwise due by virtue of prepayment as a condition to releasing the lien of such Leasehold Mortgage.

(b) If the value of any improvements made to the Leased Parcel, including any Dwelling thereon located, exceeds the sums due a Loan Program Lender pursuant to paragraph (a) of this Subection, said value shall revert to the Tribe and shall not be paid to the Lender or the Lessee.

(c) Any compensation as may be due directly to a Loan Program Lender pursuant to this Subsection shall be subject to the right of set off exercisable by the Tribe for sums due the Tribe by the Lessee.

(d) Any claim for compensation pursuant to this Subsection must be presented to the Tribe within two years of the termination of the Private Homeownership Lease, otherwise such claim is null and void and may not be enforced by the Tribal Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) Payment to Successors in Event of Termination Due to Death or Mental or Physical Incapacity – If a Private Homeownership Lease is terminated due to the death or mental or physical incapacity of the Lessee, and the lawful successor is unable to assume the responsibilities under the Private Homeownership Lease, the Tribe may make payments to such successor in the following circumstances and under the terms and conditions set out herein:

(a) If the Leased Parcel is not encumbered by a Leasehold Mortgage of Record, the Tribe shall pay the successor the fair market value of the improvements to the Leased Parcel, minus any such sums that are due to the Tribe, as described in the next subsection.

(b) Any compensation as may be due directly to a successor pursuant to this Section shall be subject to the right of set off exercisable by the Tribe for sums due the Tribe by the Lessee or the successor.

(c) For purposes of this Section, the value of any improvements made to a Leased Parcel shall mean the fair market value of all improvements made to such Leased Parcel as of the date of the death or incapacity of the Lessee, including any Dwelling thereon located but excluding any value of the land component of the Leased Parcel, as determined in accordance with the valuation procedure set forth in subsection (d) of this Section.

(d) The fair market value of the improvements shall be determined by an appraisal process as follows:

(i) The Tribe shall engage an appraiser licensed in the State of Oregon to provide a written appraisal of the value of the improvements to the Leased Parcel subject to the termination process. The cost of the appraisal shall be deducted from any sum to be paid to the successor.

(ii) To the maximum extent the appraiser shall determine is appropriate, comparables used in calculating value shall be derived from the values of improvements located on the Reservation. If in the exercise of the appraiser's professional judgment the use of such comparables are not warranted, the appraiser may use comparable sales information from real estate transfers occurring outside the Reservation. If in the exercise of the appraiser's professional judgment the use of comparables is not warranted, the appraiser shall use such other basis for determining value as the appraiser may deem appropriate.

Chapter 420
Private Homeownership Land Leasing Ordinance

(iii) If the Tribe determines that the initial appraisal is substantially divergent from what the Tribe had assumed to be the market value, the Tribe may engage a second appraiser, under the same terms as the first, to conduct another appraisal, which it may use in determining the market value.

(e) Nothing contained in this Section shall preclude the Tribe from offsetting against any sum due the successor the amount of any obligation of such Lessee to the Tribe or CIHA, whether or not such obligation has matured or is otherwise then due and payable.

(f) Any claim for compensation pursuant to this Section must be presented to the Tribe within two years of the termination of the Private Homeownership Lease through death or incapacity, otherwise such claim is null and void and may not be enforced by the Tribal Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) Payment to Tribe for Damage to Land – Notwithstanding the previous subsections of this Ordinance, if the Lessee has undertaken activities on the land that have impaired its value and/or that require the Tribe to expend funds to remedy, including but not limited to activities intended as improvements, the Lessee shall be obligated to reimburse the Tribe for such impairment of value and/or such costs.

420.300 DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

(1) Option of Delegation of Authority to CIHA – The Tribal Council may, by resolution, delegate authority to CIHA to oversee and administer the application of this Ordinance, and, on behalf of the Tribe, to execute and enforce the terms of Private Homeownership Leases with Eligible Tribal Members in accordance with this Ordinance, and the Tribal Council shall appropriate such funds as are necessary for CIHA to carry out the responsibilities of such delegation of authority.

No lease executed by or on behalf of the Tribe prior to the enactment of this Ordinance shall be rendered invalid or unenforceable for failure to Record, provided record of its execution is on file in the records of the Tribe. 420.500 SELECTION AND REQUIREMENTS

(1) Processing and Selection of Applications – Applications for Private Homeownership Leases shall be processed and selected by the Tribe in the following manner:

- (a) The Tribe shall be responsible for accepting and processing all Applications for Private Homeownership Leases.
- (b) Only Applications made by Eligible Tribal Members shall be considered.
- (c) Only Applications that set forth all the information required by the Tribe shall be considered.
- (d) The Tribe shall notify any applicant within 30 calendar days of receipt of a timely Application if the Application is deficient in any way. Any applicant notified of deficiencies in his or her Application must resubmit a corrected Application.
- (e) The Tribe will maintain the completed and valid Applications on an application registry. Obtaining a spot on the application registry is not a guarantee that an applicant will be selected to receive a lot, and no rights are thereby created.
- (f) As lands are made available for Private Homeownership Leases, the Tribe will conduct a lottery to select at random an applicant from the application registry for the available lot. The lottery will be structured so that each applicant on the application registry has an equal chance at being selected through the lottery; there shall be no preferences granted to any applicant. The Tribe shall conduct the lottery in any manner at its discretion to ensure that the process is random and gives each applicant on the application registry an equal opportunity to be selected.
- (g) If the applicant selected through the lottery process refuses to execute a Private Homeownership Lease for that parcel within 90 days of being notified of selection, that applicant will be removed from the application registry and will not be eligible to reapply for a period of one year. The Tribe will then conduct another lottery to select an applicant for the available lot.

(2) Issuance of Private Homeownership Leases - Upon completion of the process described above in subsection (1) of this Section, the Tribe shall execute a Private Homeownership Lease identifying the land to be leased and naming the successful applicant as Lessee.

(3) Construction Requirements - Because the policy underlying this Ordinance is to encourage the development of private residences on the Reservation and other Trust lands of the Tribe, the following requirements shall apply to Lessees receiving a Private Homeownership Lease:

- (a) A Lessee must construct a Dwelling (as defined in this Ordinance) on the leased parcel within the timelines set out herein. Failure to do so will be deemed conclusive evidence of good cause for termination of the Private Homeownership Lease under Section 420.200 of this Ordinance.
- (b) The Dwelling and the construction thereof must be in compliance with all applicable Tribal laws, regulations, policies, and building codes. Failure to do so will be deemed conclusive evidence of good cause for termination of the Private Homeownership Lease under Section 420.200 of this Ordinance.
- (c) A Lessee shall have one year from the date of the Execution of the Private Homeownership Lease to commence construction of a residential structure in accordance with all applicable Tribal Laws and building codes. The Tribe may issue extensions for up to an additional six months for completion upon a showing of good cause. The failure of Lessee to install a complete cellar or foundation in accordance with Tribal Law will be deemed conclusive evidence of good cause for termination of the Private Homeownership Lease under Section 420.200 of this Ordinance.
- (d) A Lessee shall have completed construction of such structure within two years of the date of the Execution of the Private Homeownership Lease. The Tribe may issue extensions for up to an additional six months for completion upon a showing of good cause. The failure of Lessee to timely obtain certification from the Tribe that such structure complies with applicable Tribal Laws and is fit for human habitation shall create a presumption of the Lessee's violation of this subsection for purposes of the application of Section 420.200 of this Ordinance.
- (e) If any marketable timber or other marketable resources are removed from the property and sold or exchanged for other goods and services (whether by the Lessee or any other person or entity), the revenues or other goods and services obtained from the sale of such timber or other resources are immediately due and payable to the Tribe, minus the reasonable and actual cost of removal or extraction. Failure to make such payment to the Tribe will be deemed conclusive evidence of good cause for termination of the Private Homeownership Lease under Section 420.200 of this Ordinance.

420.600 CONVERSION OF EXISTING TRANSACTIONS

(1) Long Term Leases for Construction of Dwellings – The Tribe and/or CIHA have leased some parcels of Reservation lands to Tribal members for the purposes of construction of private residences. Where CIHA or the Tribe and the Tribal Member have entered into a long term lease for the parcel, that lease will be subject to the terms and conditions set out in this Ordinance, subject to the requirements of this subsection.

(a) Within five years of the enactment of this Ordinance, the Tribal Member must have commenced construction of a Dwelling on the parcel, as that phrase is defined in Section 420.500(3) of this Ordinance.

(b) Within six years of the enactment of this Ordinance, the Tribal Member must have completed construction of a Dwelling on the parcel, as that phrase is defined in Section 420.500(3) of this Ordinance.

(c) If construction has not commenced within one year of the enactment of this Ordinance or if construction has not been completed within two years, CIHA or the Tribe (whichever is the Lessor) may terminate the lease, provided that CIHA or the Tribe will reimburse the Tribal Member any funds paid for the lease if the Tribal member can show documentation of such payment. Termination of the lease pursuant to this subsection will extinguish all rights of the Tribal Member to use and occupancy of the parcel, as well as any and all rights arising under the lease.

(d) The Tribe directs the Coquille Indian Housing Authority to strictly enforce the terms of any existing long term leases for construction of dwellings, and to terminate such leases if the terms of the leases have not been complied with, provided, that the Coquille Indian Housing Authority may give the leaseholder the option to convert the lease to a Private Homeownership Lease and to comply with the terms, conditions, and requirements of such Lease as set out in the Lease and in the provisions of this Ordinance. Upon execution of a Private Homeownership Lease, all rights arising under the prior lease shall be deemed extinguished and thenceforth the provisions of this Ordinance shall exclusively control and determine the rights of the Tribal Member in and to the Leased Parcel.

(2) Parcels Reserved for Long Term Leases But Not Yet Developed – CIHA and/or the Tribe has also accepted money deposits from Tribal Members for individual parcels of Reservation lands, which CIHA and/or the Tribe has agreed to set aside for the exclusive use and occupancy of the Tribal Member, and by which deposit the Tribal Member has committed to constructing and inhabiting a Dwelling on that parcel. These parcels will be subject to all terms and conditions set out in this Ordinance, subject to the requirements of this subsection.
